ABSTRACT

The Directory of Mississippi Libraries is an annual publication which provides librarians, educators, and other interested persons with a basic source of current information on Mississippi libraries. The major section of the directory consists of listings for public, academic, school, special and institutional libraries. In addition to basic directory information, e-mail addresses and a schedule of library's hours of operation are included when made available by libraries. Data in the school libraries section was provided by the Management Information Systems Division of the Mississippi Department of Education and contains only brief directory information. PREFACE

The Directory of Mississippi Libraries is an annual publication. All types of libraries are included in the new directory. The goal of this reference is to provide librarians, educators and other interested persons with a basic source of current directory type information on Mississippi libraries.

The major section of the directory consists of listings for public, academic, school, special and institution libraries. In addition to basic directory information, e-mail addresses, and a schedule of library's hours of operation are included when made available by libraries. Data in the school libraries section was provided by the Management Information Systems Division of the Mississippi Department of Education and contains only brief directory information, i.e., school name, address, phone number, and the librarian or media specialist.

An additional section of the directory is devoted to associations and cooperatives. This is more of a miscellaneous section and input is encouraged from libraries for other useful types of listings that may be included in future editions.

Libraries may request additional copies of this directory from the Public Affairs Department of the Library Commission by calling toll free 1-800-MISLIB (1-800-647-7542) or (601) 359-1036.

DISCLAIMER

Every effort has been made to compile an accurate directory with current information. Libraries are encouraged to review their entry and report corrections and/or changes. Please use the form at the end of this directory.
